We Need Your Help with the Park!

This Saturday, October 2nd, we need your help with the Park / Community Garden at 815-817 W Roscoe Street. Maybe you've hesitated in writing a check. Well, here's another way you can help. Triangle Neighbors needs volunteers to help us clean and prepare the lots for winter.

We're calling all gardeners to show up at 12 Noon this Saturday. We anticipate cleaning will take two hours and refreshments will be served.

And in case you were wondering, there are still memorial wall bricks available for sale.

Volunteers who help out this weekend will receive a 20% savings in the cost of a wall memorial brick.

Halloween Invasion from Space Coming Soon!

Triangle Neighbors is in full swing planning this year's Halloween Parade for Monday, Oct 31st. The theme is "Invasion from Space" - a double play on Sci-Fi and our own efforts to build our community garden entitled "Space".

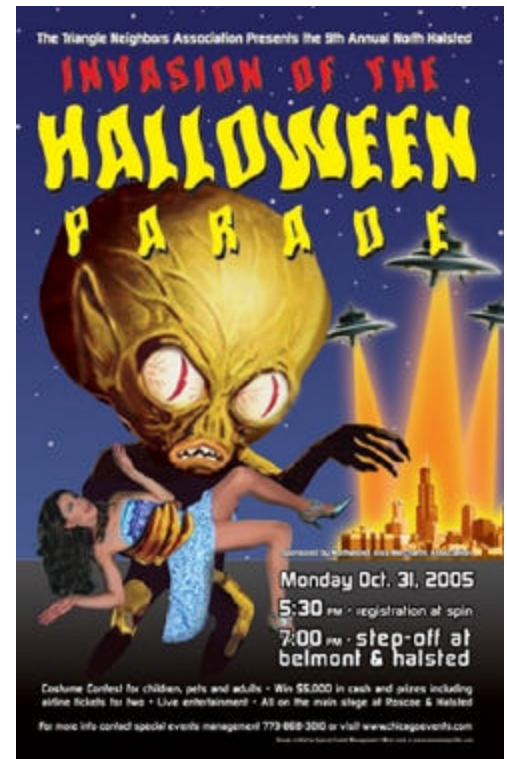

We need volunteers the day of the event to pass our literature about Triangle Neighbors and the park. If you're interested, contact jim@roscoes.com and join us at our planning meeting on Tuesday, October 18th at 7PM at John Merlo Library (644 W Belmont).

The parade is free (both to enter and watch). It will kick off at 7PM (register at 5:30 at Spin). Scheduled to appear: Great Lake Marching Band, ROTC - Righteously Outrageous Twirling Corps, Robert Belushi (son of Jim Belushi), drag queens, "The New Millennium Orchestra" and good family fun. There are special categories for kids, pets, and adults.

Many of the Northalsted Area Merchants will be having special Halloween discounts and events that night so be sure to support our local businesses that have generously donated the prizes for the parade.

Speaking of Halloween, the festivities start early at Sidetracks on October 25th (8PM) with the "Night of 100 Drag Queens", a fundraiser benefit for Equality Illinois.

Lakeview Pantry is sponsoring its second annual "Trick or Treat So Others Can Eat" drive during Halloween. Parents are encouraged to pick up a goody bag and instructions at Lakeview Pantry (3831 N Broadway). Children are asked to collect small donations ($0.10 - $1) for the Pantry. Participating children receive a craft kit, surprise holiday gifts and a head-start on Halloween candy.

For more details, come to our Triangle Neighbors Meeting on October 18th at 7PM at John Merlo Library - 644 W Belmont.
